A FIGHT IN COURT IN PROSPECT

When the General Died No Will Was To Be Found and R Was Believed To Have Been Secreted or Destroyed-The Hopes of One of the Heirs Realized at Last-Valuable Real Estate in Cincinnati and

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 21.—After being nising for two scores of years the will of Gen. Melanethoy S. Wade has been found concealed in an old sofa. The discovery at this late date of the document means a fight in court for the possession of valuable real estate and is the solution of a mystery that was talked of a great deal at the time of the general's death. When Gen. Wade one of the pioneer citizens of this city, and well known throughout the country as a rich man, died soon after the war the rela tives were surprised to learn that he had left no will. His estate comprise! large tracts of land, including property in Avondale, Walnut Hills and in the West End discharged, L., attorney will d mand trial Melanethon and Wade streets were named for him on the lorses to hing energes at this after the general, and he owned almost every loot of ground on both streets and also a large tract in Toledo, which is still Cromn saspect, was stricken from the court in the possession of the heirs. A Search for the Will.

Administration upon the estate was de-layed until a thorough search was made, but as time were on and still the anxiously bunted document did not turn up, the affair of the c-tate required the appointment of an administrator, who was named in the person if Judge Oliver, who qualitied under bond of $603,000 for the personality alone An ante-nuptial contract entered into between the decor c.1 and his second wife turned up at this juncture. This confirmed the heirs in the belief that a will would ultimately be discoved. Then trouble arose between the widow and the four survivir g step-children, and it was broadly binted that some one had secreted or destroyed the will. Tron Affinence to Poverty.

Miss Katherine Armstrong, a niece of the decedent's first wife, were loudest in this assertion. Miss Fanny, however, did not have as much at stake as Miss Armstrong and made no personal endeavor to confirm her suspicions. Mrs Armstrong, however, say men will have to be unported to take who offen heard the general say that he their places as the carpenters organization would remember her in his will, clung to the belief of its existence. Campbell was a great man in did Dick Gulicker. the management of state politics; leaders in the party feared for a while that his death brought an irreparable loss upon us. As soon as the committeemen began to look about for a new chairman it did not take long for them to determine that Delos P. Phelps was the man for the place. He lives in Monmouth, and is a member from the eleventh district. He has before this been offered the chairmanship of the committee, but has had to refuse on account of press of business. The situation now is one that calls for sacrifice on his part, and like a sterling old democrat he comes to the front and is willing to make it.

There has been considerable rumor for the last two weeks that Mr. Phelps would not give his time to the campaign work. It looked for a time as if this might leave us in a hole. It is with great satisfaction we now announce to the democrats of the state that Mr. Phelps will accept the chairmanship of the central committee. We have unquestionable assurance that such is the fact. This news will be a great relief to many who for weeks have been fearful that Muleady & Son's. Purfect fits guaranteed. Phelps would refuse. Why can we retail goods at wholesale prices?

Such a thing is impossible to any other shee firm in Decutur, but easily possible to us

The great wholesale boot and shoe house of L L. Ferris & 'o, at Chicago handles goods in such tremendous quan tities to at all the good- cought and sold in Decatar during years would be small in c mparison. Buying ingreat quanties at first hands and saving every possible discount. this house is able to own its goods at a figure which no retailer ever thinks possible. The retail establishment in Decatur, Ferriss & Lapham shoe store, is supplied direct by the Chicago wholesale house, consequently it always has its goods at a figure which would enable it to sell to all other dealers here at a profit. The real truth is that the regulation retail selling price is about the figure which other deal-rehere pay for their goods. We can give good substantial shoes at a price which other Decatur dealers will charge you for shoddy stuff. Our goods are all new and fresh and are coming in all the time. No old shop worn goods. We are determined to make this retail business larger than in any prayious year. It is the volume o trade, not the size of the profit that we are after. Come yourself and tell your neighbors to come to us for everything in the shoe line. We will save you big money.

Going to with in a few feet of him, Sweet pointed the gun squarely toward Connection and pulled the trigger. The cap snapped, but the gun didn't go off. It was afterwards to have a heavy load in it. Connaghan jumped from his ch ir mocked Sweet down and gave him a pretty good pounding. Constable I. N. Webb then arrested Sweet. That was about 6:36. and as the constable had to leave lown on the train he turned Sweet over to Constable G. D. Kitch. That officer took Sweet before Justice J. P. Fans, where he pleaded milty to the charge of attempting to commit murder. He was placed under $500 bond to answer at the circuit court. He didn't try to give it. Then the officer began to wonder what he was going to do with his prisoner. Niantie has a calaboose, but come lost. The last train had con to Decator for the
